

Copyright 2007 Lifeaxe Ltd - Pub: L105/TE03

For toughened & standard (annealed) double glazing

Multiple high carbon toughened steel points for maximum penetration

Professional version capable of breaking industrial strength glazing

Massive strike angle range
Ideal for overhead use
(up to 60 degrees)

LIFEAXE Ltd 01242 231096
Emergency Glass Breaking Equipment

Steel zinc plated for rust resistance
Also available with tungsten strike tips (Industrial version)

Impact head designed to spread and push glass away on impact

Head weighted
Almost five times heavier than single point auto hammers

Depth to suit most current mounting cases

Finger guard for added protection

Finger guard face allows over printing for company information and logos

Image shows
Lifeaxe Light

Supplied with wall mounting holder
Suitable for steel or brickwork

Area used for thumb pressure for greater striking power

Wide & extended anti-slip grip for professional use

Two versions Available:
Standard
Industrial

Industrial version utilizes tungsten tips for maximum penetration into thick glass

Designed to resist twisting and absorb impact

Available in Red and Green

LIFEAXE When escape through glazing is your only option...

For further information visit www.lifeaxe.com or Tel: 44 (0)1242 231096

Please note: This device is not suitable for laminated, wired or other types of glazing